

READING OWLS INTERNATIONAL

Creating Readers... for Life

Polly Smith-Atkins

Director

Polly Smith-Atkins is an accomplished Human Resources Professional at John Hancock Financial Services, where she has worked for the last 12 years. She has a proven track record as an advisor and coach to executive leaders, managers and employees on a range of HR related organizational and change concerns, as well as developing key people to support business strategy and drive performance objectives.

Ms Smith-Atkins consults in the areas of strategic and succession planning, employee engagement, performance management, talent identification, retention and development, as well as vendor governance and relationship management.

Polly graduated from the University of Hartford with a BA in psychology, and holds an MBA in HR Management from the University of Phoenix. She resides with her family in southeastern Massachusetts.